God Bless the Mariner.

BY MARY E. HOWITT.

God's blessing on the mariner!
 A venturesome life leads he;
 What reek the landmen of their toil
 Who dwell upon the sea?
 The landsman sits within his home,
 His fireside bright and warm;
 Nor asks how fares the mariner
 All night amid the storm.
 God bless the hardy mariner
 A homely garb wears he;
 And he goeth with a rolling gait
 Like a ship upon the sea.
 He hath piped the loud "Ay, ay, sir!"
 O'er the voices of the main,
 Till his deep tones have the hoarseness
 Of the rising hurricane.
 His seamed and honest visage
 The sun and wind have tanned;
 And hard as iron gauntlet
 Is his broad and sinewy hand.
 But oh! a spirit looketh
 From out his clear blue eye,
 With a truthful, childlike earnestness,
 Like an angel from the sky.
 A venturesome life the sailor leads
 Between the sky and sea;
 But when the hour of dread is past,
 A merrier who than he?
 He knows that by the rudder hands
 Stands one well skilled to save;
 For a strong hand is the STEERSMAN'S
 That directs him o'er the wave.

 "Oh I had my feet crushed through the carelessness of a conductor, the other day, between the cars, that's all."
 "And don't you mean to sue for damages?"
 "Damages? no, no—I have damages enough from them already—hadn't I better sue for repairs?"
 "Pa is Mr. Clay got hurt?"
 "No child. Why do you ask?"
 "Because the papers say that Mr. Polk runs against Mr. Clay, and I thought it might have knocked him down."

HOTEL FOR INVALIDS AT PITTSBURGH.

Dr. Speer and Kuhn.

THE object of this establishment is to supply a want greatly felt by respectable travellers on our western highways—by residents, without family, taken sick—and by patients from the surrounding towns and country who resort to this place for relief from surgical and other diseases. Such have often suffered from the want of the various comforts and attentions so necessary and agreeable to the sick, and from careless and unfaithful nurses; and been subjected to heavy and unreasonable charges.

Invalids will here be provided with constant, faithful and comfortable attendance, and at a rate much below the usual charges.

While the care of both physicians will be extended to every variety of disease, it is intended by Dr. Speer, to give special attention to

ALL SURGICAL DISEASES, PARTICULARLY TO DISEASES OF THE EYE.

To these branches of his profession he has given a large share of his attention for the last twenty-five years, and he will continue to devote to them the experience acquired by a constant practice during that time.

The Hotel for Invalids is not an experiment. Its establishment is suggested not only as necessary to supply an evident want in this city, in the entire absence of any special provision for the sick, but is warranted also by the success of similar institutions at Cincinnati and New Orleans—the former under the care of Drs. Taliaferro, Marshall and Strader—the latter under that of Dr. Stone.

The building selected for the purpose is situated at the corner of Federal and Robinson streets, in Allegheny city, adjoining the city of Pittsburgh. It is commodious and roomy, and furnished with all accommodations necessary for the sick.

Applications for admission to be made to the subscribers, at their office on Penn street, Pittsburgh, or at the establishment. No contagious diseases will be admitted.

He will sell common chairs at 85 per cent, and other articles in proportion.

Thankful for the patronage heretofore extended to him, he would invite the public to call and examine his work, which he will warrant to be made of the best materials and finished in the neatest and most durable manner.

DR. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY,

FOR CONSUMPTION, Colds, Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, Pain in the Side, Breast and Chest, Whooping Cough, Croup, and all Diseases of the Liver and Lungs.

BEWARE OF CONSUMPTION!
 We behold many who unfortunately are the object of disease, borne down by its pain and distress, without a medicine to strengthen and soothe the enfeebled frame, or relieve the poisoned mind; kind Providence has caused Nature to produce a HEALING BALM for all living creatures, particularly the afflicted. Heavens, whose labors have been so successful to discover the Medical Agent for the removal and cure of a disease which seems for ages to have defied the powers of the healing art, should be regarded in the light of a public benefactor.

The proprietor of Dr. Duncan's EXPECTORANT REMEDY claims this, substantiated by thousands who are living monuments restored from the bed of sickness to the enjoyment of their dearest friends, and again rendered an ornament to society.

Those who suffer with the premonitory symptoms of CONSUMPTION, should not neglect themselves from time to time, until the disease becomes seated, and rendered beyond the control of medicine, but immediately procure Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy, a medicine that is certain to remove all the first evil seeds of Consumption, when used in due season. Just received 4 doz. of the above medicine and for sale by Parker & Ankeny, the only authorized agent for Somerset county.
